VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1868. NO. 172.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

CHARLOTTE, Feb. 25, 1868.

GENTLEMEN:—When I saw you last in Raleigh,—at that time a city in which the blessed air might be inhaled without bringing with it the sensation of suffocation which, I should infer, was now its unavoidable accessory—the Senior Editor said to me: "I shall always be glad to hear from you."

Knowing that gentleman to be, emphatically, a man of his word, I knew he meant what he said; so here goes for a little chat on matters and things in general, and Charlotte matters in particular.

In this goodly city, the dethroned monarch, Cotton, has been restored to all his ante-bellum rights and is indeed a king, every inch of him! Two tremendous wagons piled up with bales passed my cottage gate, this morning, and, with the hope that I might effect a small speculation, I dispatched my hasty maid to ask the price per pound. The owner, a tall, gaunt man, who looked as if he had both seen and done service, replied coolly: "Highest market price."—So you can take that as the last quotation of the "Charlotte cotton market."

I told you, last summer, if you good people of the City of Oaks did not take care, Charlotte would not only catch up with you, but pass you by, in the race of municipal prosperity, and facts are corroborating the assertion.

I know Tucker [why did not those enterprising gentlemen omit that ugly "S i"] is hard to beat, but so is the handsome building which ornaments our city, and affords positive proof of the energy and taste of its proprietors and projectors, Messrs Oates & Saunders, under the title of "Oates Hall."

The gay young bachelors of Charlotte gave a grand house-warming in this Hall, some weeks ago, in the shape of a ball. It was given in compliment to two fair brides, and though I did not attend, I furnished a substitute, and am informed that, of all the elegant entertainments given this season, the "Bachelor's Ball" was by far the chief. To-night—the last of the carnival—puts an end to the gayety, and with to-morrow begins the saddest of the ecclesiastical seasons, in which we commemorate the trials and temptations of Him who gave himself as a ransom for us all.

I think no one can faithfully observe this solemn time, in which one withdraws from the world to hold communion with the Father of Spirits, without feeling, at its close, that indeed "Angels came and ministered unto him."

Angels suggest their antipodes. What a good time you all must be having in Raleigh, just now!

The component parts of the noble assemblage at the dishonored capitol remind one of Hecate's celebrated caldron in Macbeth. "Oh! for a Mac Duff to "lay on" till every one of the mongrel mass was reduced to his appropriate station! Do you think one voice could be found to cry "enough!"

I was amused and at the same time made sorry by the sight of an illustrated article emanating, not long since, from Raleigh.—It appeared in a paper once published, now printed, in your city, and which at one time was considered one of the standard productions of the State.

This article amused me by being so exactly suited to the colored calibre of those for whose coarse comprehensions it was intended, and yet made me sorry to see such a pitiable falling off in one, who was once held to be a man of some force and vigor in editorial affairs.

He did not intend to praise those against whom this attack was directed, yet paid them, and the cause they advocated, the highest possible compliment. In heaping the utmost reproach, he could possibly procure, on the public lives and services of the gentlemen he assailed, he could find no subject for blame except the way in which they held their "hats" and carried their "umbrellas."

If it be necessary, let us review each other's actions, and load them with good, hearty, wholesome abuse, but for the sake of mind, manliness, and muscle, do not let us conduct a campaign with "hats and umbrellas."

The sneers the article contained, relative to the failure of our Southern leaders to make realities of the high hopes which sustained us all, were beneath contempt, and only recoiled on him who made them.

That individual had better let lions alone, whether dead or living ones. He thought one of the greatest of them was dead some time ago, and actually dared to kick him! Leo was not at all dead, only caged, and after a while he became free, and if his kicker does not take care, he will, in Western parlance, be "catawampously chawed up" by this lord of the forest. The Lion roared the other night in our city, and as usual, turned the hearts of the people just as he chose. Long may he live, and much good may he continue to do his mother State, who has such right to love him!

The night previous to his great speech, was marked by one of those musical treats, which are from time to time afforded Charlotte.

This was a grand concert given at the Charlotte Female Institute, under the immediate direction of Profes or A. Bawmann. This gentleman is a thorough artist, and, as is always the case where one absorbs himself in his art, his success in imparting to his pupils a perfection of finish in all things relating to the divine study of music, is wonderful. The airs, vocal and instrumental, ranging from the "Egeria Waltz," performed by little hands that could barely reach an octave, to the wild strains of Schubert's world renowned "Wanderer," were exquisitely rendered, in a manner reflecting the highest degree of credit on pupils and Maestro.

Every thing in and about the Institute, in addition to being as thorough as possible, has an air of elegance and quiet dignity, which one always associates with the word Southern.

This entertainment, in these respects, resembled its predecessors, and was in reality a display whose brilliancy was equalled only by its refined hospitality.

Spring, with her fingers full of violets and hyacinths, is among us. So soon as she shall have exchanged them for the roses of her sister Summer, I shall plume my wings for a dip—not in the "Carolina Belle,"—but the silver waters of the sparkling Catawba.

In the meantime and always,

Most truly, E. D.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to make a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($300) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 48 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $30 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the cost depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no one or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some sixty day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in full, to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND CONGRESS.

The attempt of the Congress to prefer grave articles of impeachment against President Johnson, for the offence charged, must strike sensible men, both in Europe and America, as a ridiculous affair. Impeachment is the last resort provided by the Constitution, to rid the Government of an Executive, whose acts plainly indicate that he designs and purposes wicked and dangerous schemes. It can only be thought of when the President is clearly guilty of "high crimes and misdemeanors." Yet Congress assumes that it is a high crime for the President to do, what the Constitution authorizes him to do, and which he has solemnly sworn to support, because he adopts the only available method left him to test the validity of a law which he believes unconstitutional, and which was passed by Congress for the very purpose of abridging his constitutional authority.

Indeed, several of the ablest Republican Senators, at the time the Tenure-of-Office Bill was under discussion, declared that it could not apply to those officers whom Mr. Johnson did not appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate,—especially the old members of his cabinet. Yet, when the President resorts to the only method left him of getting rid of a contumacious and offensive Cabinet officer, like Mr. Stanton, whom he could not kick out, Congress steps forward to assume the personal quarrel of Mr. Stanton with the President, and, in its wanton rage, proposes to retain the services of Mr. Stanton, who, it is admitted, has violated all rules of propriety in his conduct as a Cabinet officer, by impeaching the President, at the peril of the Government.

President Johnson will not fail to meet the charge against him, with the manliness and consciousness of rectitude which have controlled his entire conduct. He will maintain, without flinching, the lofty spirit of patriotism and that devotion to the Constitution, which he has steadily maintained, and bid defiance to his persecutors. That man must be wilfully blind, who can see, in all that the President has done, anything to justify the course of Congress.

Should the people of the North, acting upon the teachings of the "second sober thought," rally in primary and mass meetings, to condemn the hasty and hazardous action of Congress,—should they unmistakably declare their readiness, as they certainly will, if they have the true spirit of their fathers, to stand by the Constitution and the government of their fathers,—Congress will either retrace its steps or wait the gathering of that storm of condemnation which must fall ere long upon its guilty head.

Great wisdom and great forbearance are needed to guide and control the crisis which has arisen. President Johnson's confidence in the people has not forsaken him. Should that confidence not have been misplaced, there is, perhaps, time enough, yet, to screen the government and the Republic from the ruin which has been plotted against them.

WAKE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

We understand that the negro-Radical Convention for this Congressional District met in this city, on yesterday. James H. Harris, negro, was nominated, but declined, on the ground that the election of a negro to Congress would damage the party at the North! Col. J. T. Deweese, Register in Bankruptcy and Yankee, was then nominated. It will be seen, by the Card, in another column, that J. A. McDonald, of Chatham, declares himself an independent candidate.

This whole proceeding is the baldest thing ever perpetrated. The nomination of Harris was simply made to delude the negroes. And he never would have declined, if he had not been paid to do so. He has, doubtless, received, out of the corruption fund, a full pecuniary equivalent for his patriotic abnegation, and we may soon expect to hear of his making another trip North, giving Philadelphia the go-by, for obvious reasons. The white Radicals, Yankee and native, are determined to have all the paying offices themselves, and the National Committee, at Washington, for the ostensible reasons alleged by Harris in declining, have furnished the means to buy off negro aspirants for all the offices. Whether the negroes, who are not interested in this corruption business, will stand by and see a few hundred scalawags monopolize the offices, to which their numbers entitle them, in the Radical distribution, remains to be seen.

The nominee, Deweese, is the most obnoxious man to the white people of this District,—and we should hope to all right-thinking negroes,—that could have been put forward. While an officer in the Federal army, he made a speech, denouncing the President, and boasting of the atrocities which he had an opportunity of inflicting upon the people of undefended portions of Arkansas, during the war. He is Holden's prime pet and favorite associate,—malevolent, vindictive and proscriptive, a negro equality man, on professed principle and by actual practice. We should be sorry to believe, what we do not believe,—that such a man could ever represent the people of this District, white or black, in any public capacity.

CHOWAN.—A friend writing from this county, under date of Feb. 24th, says:

"The white population of this county is united. The Radical party did not poll more than eight white voters, at the last election, and, with proper effort, I think every registered white voter in this county, except the eight who voted for French, can be enrolled in the Conservative organization."

MR. ASHLEY, THE PILGRIM.

The little regard paid to parliamentary usage in the so-called Convention has made the body ridiculous, yet its conduct, on Wednesday, to raise a committee to gratify the Pilgrim against Mr. Durham, to enquire into the differences between Mr. Durham and Mr. Ashley, makes it contemptible.—Mr. Ashley is one of the delegates sent by the negroes of New Hanover to the Convention. He is of the Thad. Stevens stripe of Radicals, is a professed minister of the gospel, yet betrays a vindictive bitterness, which would befit a prominent actor of the Inquisition.

Mr. Durham has been the special object of this man's spite, and in various ways he has tried to irritate and provoke him to make an onslaught upon him. Mr. D. has been indisposed to notice the creature, yet, on Monday night last, Mr. Ashley's insolence was beyond endurance. Mr. Ashley charged disloyalty upon Mr. Durham and Mr. D. repelled it sharply. Mr. Ashley repeated it and Mr. D., as he had been forced to do, on other occasions, charged Ashley with lying. On Wednesday, Ashley claimed, because of his clerical character, the protection of the Convention, and asked for a committee of investigation, which the body granted. No Conservative objected and Mr. Durham raised not a finger.

It is perfectly plain, that if the President of the Convention had possessed three grains of sense, in regard to his duty, nothing of the kind would have occurred. Mr. Ashley had no right, whatever, to assail Mr. Durham's loyalty, whatever may have been his course. No charge is more insulting or more unparliamentary, than the one made by Mr. Ashley against Mr. Durham.—It was the duty of the Chair to call Mr. Ashley to order, the moment he uttered the offensive epithet. Had he done so, Mr. D. would have been estopped from any reply. His failure to do so, justified the severe retort of Mr. Durham. Moreover, the peculiar character of Ashley's charge, if we understand it, is just such an one as he cannot prove. Mr. Durham is the only man living who can judge of the falsity or truth of the charge. He knew it was a lie, and, therefore, told Ashley that he was a liar. What else could Ashley expect? He looked for exactly what Mr. Durham gave him. It was what he sought, and what he deserved, and now he goes sniveling to the Convention and asks for an investigation. To investigate what? Why, first, that Mr. Durham "has treason lurking in his heart."—What Committee on earth can investigate that fact? Mr. Durham is the only man who can decide that matter. Mr. D. says it is not so, and who dare say otherwise?—Secondly, the Committee must investigate the fact, whether Mr. Ashley lied or not.—Who can determine that, beyond a reasonable doubt? Why, of course, Mr. Durham. The next step would be to decide that Mr. Durham was out of order in calling Mr. Ashley a liar, but the Committee would be equally bound to declare that Mr. Ashley was out of order, and the aggressor, in charging disloyalty upon Mr. Durham. Upon which, if they decided that Mr. D. deserved censure, they must also decide that Mr. A. deserved the greater censure, because he gave the first offence. Such must be the ridiculous farce of an investigation. Mr. Ashley ought to have seen enough of Mr. Durham, and of Southern gentlemen, to know, that when a Minister conducts himself, as a minister, towards gentlemen, he is always treated as such, and when he conducts himself as a gentleman, whether he hail from Cape Cod or anywhere else, he always has the same measure meted to him; but when a Yankee Radical schoolmaster puts on airs and impudently attempts to brow-beat or detract from a gentleman by the use of insulting epithets, he will be sure to catch it. He may thank his stars that he was in the Convention, and not somewhere else, when he dared to assail Mr. Durham as a disloyal person.

HAVING BEEN twice overwhelmingly beaten by the white people of North Carolina for the office of Governor, the X. P. G. now comes forward as the negro candidate. Of course, he can not expect any genuine white man to vote for him. How can he expect the negroes to do so, when he declared:

That he only struck for peace, in the latter stages of the war, in order to SAVE SLAVERY;

That slavery was the normal condition of the negro,—that he should be "fed well, worked well and THRASHED WELL;"

That unqualified opposition to negro suffrage was the most CONSPICUOUS OF UNION LANDMARKS;

And so on, ad infinitum,—all of which we shall be under the painful necessity of reproducing, from day to day, for lo! these many weeks.

CANVASSERS.

The following additional recommendations have been made to the Executive Committee and are hereby announced.—The selections, in every case, are all that could be desired:

WILSON.—The Conservatives of this county are to meet, to-morrow, for the purpose of organization.

THE WHITE MEN ASTIR!

In conformity with an invitation extended to him by the Conservative Executive Committee of New Hanover, Col. W. L. Steele, of Richmond county, was to address the people of Wilmington, last evening.

A mass meeting of the Conservatives of Duplin will be held at Kenansville, on Saturday, the 7th. of March. Those gifted and gallant gentlemen, Cols. R H. Cowan and W. S. Devane, of Wilmington, and Geo. V. Strong, Esq., of Goldsboro, will address the people on the occasion.

Keep the ball moving!

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

On the 26th instant, being Tuesday of Rockingham County Court, proclamation was made that a meeting of all Conservatives of the County was desired, and, in a few minutes, the spacious Court room was crowded, when, on motion, Wm. D. Bethell, Esq., was called to the chair, and Jones W. Burton, Esq., and Col. J. R. Winston were requested to act as Secretaries.

The Chairman having briefly explained the object of the meeting,

On motion, the Chairman appointed the following persons a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting: Joseph Holderby, William P. Watt, Hugh K. Reid, Alfred Reid, and Martin Grogan, Esqs.; who, after retiring for a few moments, returned and reported, through their Chairman, the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we do cordially approve of and endorse the Declaration of Principles set forth by the late Conservative Convention, which met in Raleigh on the 5th instant, and that we will bend all our energies in endeavoring to have them fully sustained.

Resolved, That Rawley Galloway, Robt. H. Ward, Jones W. Burton, and Wm. D. Bethell, Esqs., and Dr. P. M. Winchester, be and they are hereby recommended as suitable persons to canvass the County in advocacy of Conservative principles.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint 54 persons, three in each Captain's District, who shall constitute a County Committee to take charge of all matters of registration and local organization.

All of which were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Jones W. Burton, Esq., the following persons were added to the list of those recommended to canvass the County: John H. Dillard, A. M. Scales, A. J. Boyd and Joseph Holderby, Esqs.

At various stages of the meeting, it was addressed, in the most forcible and elegant manner, by General A. M. Scales, Col. James T. Morehead, of Greensboro, Samuel P. Hill, Esq., and Hon. John Kerr, of Caswell. We will not do these gentlemen the injustice to attempt to report them, but will say, that they not only satisfied, but delighted their friends; and, as to the speech of the gentleman last named, the best idea we can give of its power, is to say, that we believe it to have been the greatest effort of his life."

On motion of Wm. R. Neal, Esq., the Editors of the Raleigh Sentinel, Greensboro' Times, Milton Chronicle and Danville (Va.) Times, were requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

EX POST FACTO ACTS.

"If Congress finds that it has exacted conditions which are too severe, it is perfectly competent for it to recede from them."

So says the New York Evening Post of the Alabama election. Here is a suppression of the truth which amounts to the statement of a falsehood. The Post speaks of the conditions exacted by Congress, as if they were exacted in the exercise of sovereignty; whereas they are simply the terms between contracting parties, which one cannot modify or recall at pleasure. As long as Congress kept the matter in its own hands, the conditions it should impose were within its own sovereignty; but just so soon as it called on the people of Alabama to vote, the conditions it had imposed became the terms of a contract. Congress had the right beforehand to pronounce the votes of a quarter or a tenth of the population sufficient, or even to go farther, and, like the heroic and unflinching Tribune, declare that "any ten" loyal men constituted the State; but when it had invited the voters to an election on the express provision that a majority of all registered should be necessary to give effect, it cannot now "recede" from this provision and declare that a majority only of those voting shall be held to have ratified the Constitution. That would not be sovereignty: it would be rascality.—Take a parallel case. The Legislature has a right to declare the limits of felony; but it has no right to declare that a man has committed felony, just because he has done that which it might have made felony. The only question is, What was the law at the time the act was committed? So of the Alabama election, the question is not what Congress might have declared, originally, to be taken as ratifying the Constitution; but on what terms the election was actually held. Of that there can be no dispute. Congress provided that a clear majority of all registered voters should be necessary. That majority was not obtained.—We do not even know—say, we have not even fair ground for supposing—that had a full vote been cast, the constitution would have been ratified. The Conservative party stayed away on the terms of Congress; and for Congress now to "recede" from those terms, and, having trapped them into not voting, to declare the election void, would be simple fraud, unworthy of a legislature, and in the highest degree dangerous to the party responsible for it.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

MORNING SESSION.

THURSDAY, Feb. 27, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Pepper, (Chaplain of 40th U. S. colored Troops.)

Mr. Candler moved to adjourn until 7½ o'clock this evening, but withdrew it, in order to allow Mr. Hodnett to rise to a question of privilege.

Mr. Hodnett wished to know by what authority the postage on large packets of mail that regularly went from this Hall, every day, was paid out of the people's money. He thought that they received high enough per diem, to pay for their own correspondence.

Mr. Rich rose to a point of order, saying that the gentlemen was not speaking to a question of privilege.

The Chair thought that a resolution in regard to the matter should be offered.

Mr. Hodnett replied that various Conservative gentlemen had endeavored to call attention to this matter, but had not succeeded in gaining a recognition from the Chair.

He, in the name of the people of the State, and in the name of his constituents, denounced this illegal appropriation of the people's money.

Various other points of order were sprung upon Mr. Hodnett, when he took his seat, saying, "yes, you rule out of order everything that has a tendency to show to the people the reckless extravagance with which you squander their money."

Mr. Candler renewed his motion to adjourn.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend by saying 10 o'clock, to-morrow, and the motion, as amended, prevailed.

Correspondence of the "Sentinel."

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.,
Feb. 25th. 1868.

A meeting of the Radicals took place at Oxford, on Saturday last, the 22d. inst. This was an adjourned meeting from the previous Saturday meeting, of which you have published a short account. R. Smith again presided. Capt. Ed. Lyon, R. W. Lassiter Esq., and some three or four other white men, were participants in the meeting. The Court House was pretty well filled with the descendants of Ham.

The form of Cuffee Mayo was visible in the sable throng. Mr. Lassiter and Cuffee were the principal speakers. Capt. Lyon, as usual, had something to say, and various addresses of "short duration and empty declamation" were made by different individuals of a variety of hues.

Capt. Lyon spoke of the audience as being "too intelligent," not to select "smart men" as delegates to the Raleigh Convention.

Messrs. Moore and Ragland did not attend the meeting, though we heard they were on a visit to the county.

We suppose they thought Cuffee would put things to rights, especially with a little assistance from Mr. Lassiter and Capt. Smith.

X. Y.

DOINGS IN RADICAL CAUCUS.

The Edmunds bill, the effect of which will be to depose the President from office immediately on the presentation of articles of impeachment by the House, was brought forward by its author, and its passage urged with great vehemence, both by him and a number of other Senators. Both Mr. Trumbull and Mr. Fessenden opposed it, not only on the ground of unconstitutionality, as being clearly an ex post facto law, but as also having the effect to damage rather than promote the party interest. A majority of those present were in favor of putting the bill through, but it was finally decided to postpone final action until another caucus will be held, and by that time, Mr. Sumner says, the two above named gentlemen will be ready to fall into the traces, as this is not the first question on which they have been refractory at the beginning and docile at the end.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Sun.

GEN. GRANT'S MOVEMENTS.

If any assurance is needed concerning the intention of Gen. Grant in this crisis, and there is no one here who entertains a doubt, we have it in the fact that he has removed the old guard of the War Department, the 12th infantry, and detailed men of his own body guard, the 5th cavalry, to do the duty.

Gen. Grant issued an order yesterday morning, calling the attention of commanders of posts to the recent act of Congress that all orders to the army must pass through his hands, that his headquarters are in this city, and that orders emanating from any other source must not be obeyed. The President has been baffled at every point, and there is not the faintest prospect that he will be able, if he should feel so inclined, to muster a corporal's guard of the regular army to aid him in his opposition to Congress.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Tribune, 24th.

A STRONG APPEAL.—A petition to the Senate, from white citizens of Alabama, was presented by Mr. Doolittle, some days since. A passage reads thus:

"Continue over us, if you will do so, your own rule by the sword. Send down among us honorable and upright men of your own people, of the race to which you and we belong; and ungracious, contrary to wise policy and the institutions of the country, and tyrannous as it will be, no hand will be raised among us to resist by force their authority. But do not, we implore you, abdicate your own rule over us by transferring us to the blighting, brutalizing and unnatural dominion of an alien and inferior race, a race which has never shown sufficient administrative capacity for the good government of even the tribes with which it has always been broken up in its native seats, and which, in all ages, has itself furnished slaves for all the other races of the earth."

Kittrell's Springs Female College,

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1868.

CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The State Conservative Executive Committee will assemble, at 11 o'clock, this morning, at the office of the Hon. A. S. Merrimon.

WAKE COUNTY CONVENTION.

We are requested to announce that a meeting of the Conservatives of Wake County will be held, in this City, at the Court House, on Thursday, the 5th. of March, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and for county offices.

There being no time left for holding precinct meetings, all whom this announcement may reach are requested to communicate the information, in order that, if possible, citizens from all portions of the County may be present on the occasion. Some Conservative in each district can easily apprise many of his neighbors of the contemplated meeting.

WE ARE requested by the Secretary of the State Executive Committee to state, that it is impossible for him to answer the numerous letters which he receives. Their business contents will be promptly attended to, but answers must not be expected, except in indispensable cases.

THE "MONGRELS."

The so called Convention was in session but a few minutes on yesterday, and then adjourned to attend the Tucker Hall Convention, pocketing $8, each, for fifteen minutes' services in "Constitution making."—These men refused to adjourn in honor of Washington's birthday, but have drawn upwards of $2,000 from the Treasury, and neglected their work for two days, in order to attend a party conclave.

Short as was the session, on yesterday, however, it was long enough to enable the mongrels to dodge an inquiry, instituted by Mr. Hodnett, into a suspected corrupt and unappropriation of State funds, to personal and party uses. We hope that this investigation will be pressed. Let the profligates be smoked out!

STANDARD OFFICE NOMINATIONS.—Nothing so strikingly shows the utter paucity of material for Radical candidates, either for County or State officers, as the recent nominations made from the Standard office. It looks as if the X. P. G. were willing to empty his office to serve "the dear people." Read and wonder at the extraordinary exhibition of self-sacrifice on the part of the Standard:

State Officers—W. W. Holden, for Governor; C. L. Harris, for Superintendent of Board of Public Works; W. M. Coleman, for Attorney General.

For Congress—Col J. T. Deweese, of Illinois.

County Officers—Joseph William Holden, for the Commons; W. W. White, for County Court Clerk; J. N. Bantlin, for Superior Court Clerk.

The two last have been employees, practical printers, at the Standard office, if not now.

POOR CALVIN J.—not Cowles, this time,—but Rogers! He declared himself against the Howard Amendment, for the sake of being elected to the Legislature. He next "returned to his vomit," went into a nigger Convention and was insulted by Foul Taylord. Next a candidate for Sergeant-at-arms, he received only two votes against Peck, a Yankee squatter. And again, after weeks of diligent begging, he was defeated, in the negro Radical nominating Convention, for Auditor, by an overwhelming majority. Let him go home to Fishdam and bury himself in his native insignificance!

WE THOUGHT THAT Pilgrim Ashley, the "mean man," was after something, when he displayed his scholastic learning in the "so-called," a few days since. We suppose it might be a Professorship in a nigger University, but the "cat's out of the bag, now." A Yankee pedagogue, of small calibre and smaller attainments, Superintendent of Public Instruction in North Carolina! Let Africa rejoice!

THE X. P. G. boasted, in his speech of acceptance, that he was not afraid to meet Gov. Vance on the stump! He would sooner "pluck the Nemean lion by the beard," put his head in the lion's, tell the truth, or do something equally desperate, as to meet Vance before the people. We would walk a long ways, in the rain, any day, to hear Vance take hold of the X. P. G. There would be nothing left but a very small grease spot, after that skinning operation was finished.

THANKS to J. H. Hearne, Esq., of Albemarle, Stanly county, for a club of subscribers to the Weekly Sentinel.

THE NEGRO RADICAL CONVENTION ON YESTERDAY—ADDITIONAL NOMINATIONS.

We had a Reporter on the spot, but we do not care to cumber our columns with the disgusting details of the doings, in the negro-Radical nominating Convention, on yesterday. The proceedings were marked by great confusion, constant wrangling over the spoils, like hungry dogs over a bone, and incessant clatter. A looker-on observed that the whole affair seemed to be a special contract undertaken by Abbott and Jim Harris, as one or the other of them was continually on the floor.

Hon. R. M. Pearson, Hon. R. P. Dick and Col. W. B. Rodman, (ah! Col., that accounts for the milk in the cocoanut,) were nominated for the Supreme Court bench; and a Committee, consisting of C. J. Cowles, D. L. Russell and W. M. Coleman, were appointed to wait upon these gentlemen, and ascertain if they would accept the nominations tendered, as Republicans,—the mover of the resolution remarking that he thought the Republican party ahead of any one man or set of men.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, a resolution was adopted, that it was the sense of the Convention, that the "Constitutional" (so-called) Convention should increase the number of Supreme Court Judges to five,—in which event, the Executive Committee was authorized and directed to make the two additional nominations.

The subjoined nominations were made for the Superior Court Bench. We shall have occasion, frequently, hereafter, to canvas all the nominations made by this Convention, and we may only say, for the present, of most of these following, that if they are to constitute the Judiciary of North Carolina, Heaven help the law and the people!

We will publish, at an early day, the new arrangement of Judicial Districts.

P. S. We learn that the proceedings of the mongrel concern were particularly disgraceful, on yesterday afternoon. The whole affair, to a spectator, looked like an indiscriminate row. There were but few white men in the Hall, and the negro crowd were surging to and fro in black waves. Amid such scenes of tumult and demoniac excitement, a resolution was passed "instructing" the Constitutional (so-called) Convention to disfranchise the "rebels."—Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, and Mr. Elliott, of Cleaveland, almost alone and amid hisses, standing up against it.

If this Pandemonium, added to the motley "Convention" in the Capitol, does not stir the blood, excite the indignation, and arouse the energies of every decent white man in North Carolina, we shall have a much poorer opinion of our own race and color than we are now disposed to entertain.

We shall take occasion, hereafter, to describe some of the closing scenes of yesterday, and to speak, particularly, of some of the actors in the disfranchising movement. We rejoice, for ourselves, that the mongrel and crazy crew have shown their hands so plainly and unguardedly. Now for them!

LATER.—The mob dispersed sine die about 11 o'clock last night, after the appointment of delegates to the Chicago Convention. The name of Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, though reported by the Committee, was stricken from the list, and his Republicanism was assailed on all sides. He defended himself vigorously and "carried the war into Africa" in his way.

WE UNDERSTAND that there were some rich scenes, and great discord and confusion, in the nigger nominating Convention, on yesterday.

Harris (negro) offered a resolution, requesting the "Constitutional" Convention to take into consideration the unjust mode of binding out black children and to remedy the same.

An ancient darkey moved, as an amendment, that every man should be allowed to claim his own children. Daddy Cowles seconded the amendment,—with an eye to his numerous and wandering offspring in the "so-called."

McDonald was on the floor at another time, but was interrupted by frequent calls to order. He stood up manfully against interruptions, giving his persecutors as good as they sent, when Harris, negro,—grateful, probably, for Mac's previous comparison of him to Graham and Vance,—came to his assistance, (over the left,) thusly: "Oh! Chatham is North Carolina, and McDonald is Chatham!"

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—We learn that French, of Washington City, not a citizen of North Carolina, has received the nomination for Congress in the Edenton District.

So far as we have learned, the nominations for Congress stand:

Newbern District.—Heaton, Yankee.
Wake " Deweese, Yankee.
Edenton " French, Yankee.

A PERFECTLY "LOYAL" MAN.

"It is said a plot has been formed in Washington to massacre Jeff. Davis. WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"—W. W. Holden, Raleigh Standard of June 5th 1861.

"Butler is strengthening his position at Newport News, by strong batteries. He has stolen about two hundred negroes from the Peninsula, and has them hard at work making embankments.—Ibid, June 8th 1861.

HARNETT.—A meeting of the Conservatives of this county will be held at Lillington, on Tuesday, the 11th inst.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, P. M.

SENATE.—Nothing interesting transpired.

HOUSE.—The Civil appropriations were resumed.

Speaker Colfax read to the House, a letter from the Chief of New York Police to the Chief of Washington Police, containing a statement that Pol. P. Shaffner reported that one hundred and sixty pounds of nitro-glycerine were in unauthorized hands. The New York Chief feared that it was intended for Washington. It seemed to create more alarm than merriment. Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, P. M.

The Iowa Democratic State Convention has elected delegates favorable to Pendleton, and instructed them so to vote.

The impeachment matter has made no progress, to-day. Several parties, interested in Alabama's admission, were before the Reconstruction Committee, to-day, urging promptness.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION—NO NEGROES WANTED IN CONGRESS.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 27 P. M.

The Convention passed 17 sections of the Judiciary article. The Judges are to be elected by the Legislature. The Equity, District and Probate Courts are abolished.

A strong effort was made for the election of Judges by the people, but failed.

A resolution was adopted, tendering the thanks of the "loyal" people of South Carolina to Congress, Grant and Stanton. Some negroes opposed it.

The Committee of two colored delegates returned from Washington, "with the information that the Republicans did not wish for the election of colored Congressmen!"

The State is to be divided into Congressional Districts, with 6 representatives instead of 4. Great rush for offices.

GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Feb 27, P. M.

It was resolved in the Convention, to-day, that the State Capital be removed from Milledgeville to Atlanta.

The anti-relief party was inaugurated last night, by thirty delegates in caucus. It proposes to nominate a candidate for Governor.

It asks all opposed to repudiation, whether they are in favor or not of ratification, to support the nomince, and to request Congress to re-assemble the Convention, with instructions to strike out the relief clause in the Constitution now forming.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

JACKSON, Feb. 27, P. M.

The Convention, last night, adopted the tax ordinance, as far as the fifteenth section. The balance was recommitted.

A resolution was adopted, thanking Congress for impeaching the President.

To-day, the Bill of Rights was under consideration.

Sections were adopted prohibiting dueling, defining treason against the State and prohibiting property or educational qualifications for electors.

ALABAMA ELECTION—A RADICAL MURDER.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 27, P. M.

The return from all the counties, in which elections were held, have been received, but their publication is forbidden.

A negro man, who was known as opposed to the League, and used his influence to keep negroes from voting, was killed, by a violent radical negro, last Monday night, about twenty miles from this city.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c., in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN CHARLOTTE.

In pursuance of a call made by the Canvassers appointed by the late Conservative Convention, held at the city of Raleigh, a very large concourse of the Conservative citizens of Charlotte, together with others from the surrounding country, assembled in Treloar Hall, on the night of the 22nd., for the purpose of forming a Conservative club, and of fully endorsing the action of the Conservative State Convention, which had just adjourned its session.

At the hour appointed for the meeting, Gen. Jno. A. Young ascended the stand and called it to order and nominated as its President the Hon. J. H. Wilson, which nomination being seconded, he was unanimously called to preside, and, in a few remarks fully explained the object of the meeting, after which, on motion of Gov. Vance, Mr. Jonas Rudisill and T. C. Allison were appointed Vice Presidents, and, on motion of Dr. M. M. Orr, Mr. J. E. Britton and J. S. Phillips were requested to act as Secretaries.

After the organization had been perfected, on motion of Gen. R. D. Johnston, the President appointed a committee of five to draft a set of resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting as follows: Gen. Robt. D. Johnston, Gov. Z. B. Vance, Gen. J. A. Young, Mr. S. F. Houston and Mr. Samuel Taylor.

While the Committee was absent preparing business for the action of the meeting, Col. H. C. Jones, Jr., was called for and addressed the concourse in a patriotic and well-timed speech.

At the conclusion of Col. Jones' remarks, Judge J. W. Osborne was called upon, and ascended the platform amid tremendous applause, and for some time held, as if chained, the attention of his hearers in a broad, grand and eloquent address, which was frequently interrupted by rounds of applause.

After the conclusion of Judge Osborne's speech, the committee appointed to prepare business for the meeting having returned, the President called for their report, whereupon Gen. R. D. Johnston, the Chairman of the Committee, read the annexed resolutions, which were, upon motion of Col. H. C. Jones, when adopted, to be adopted as a whole:

Resolved, That this meeting cordially approves and ratifies the proceedings of the late Conservative Convention at Raleigh, and heartily commends its declaration of principles and plan of organization to the people of this county.

Resolved, That for the futherance of the great principles therein set forth, we will form ourselves into an organization to be called the Conservative Club of Charlotte, with a President, Secretary, and other officers to be designated, and pledge to each other our sacred honor that we will use every fair and legitimate effort to restore and maintain the ancient rights, liberties and supremacy of the white people of North Carolina.

Resolved, That "Mecklenburg" sends greeting to her sister counties, and challenges them to a performance of the high and responsible duties which devolve upon us all in this crisis of Southern civilization, in the name and by the sacred memories of 1776.

Resolved, That an Executive Committee of five be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting to request the citizens of the various captains' districts to meet in Charlotte on such day as may be indicated by the committee herein contemplated, to consult together for the organization of the Conservative party in this County, as recommended by our late State Convention.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to have the names of all the members of this club enrolled; and we recommend the same to the committees of the other districts of the county.

Upon the call of the President, for remarks upon the resolutions, Governor Zebulon B. Vance, the patriot hero of North Carolina, was vociferously called for, and, amid a thunder of applause that fairly made the building shake, entertained the meeting with his usual high-toned, chivalrous and patriotic devotion to his country for his country's good. During Governor Vance's remarks, he was frequently interrupted by applause, and, at the conclusion of his speech, such a shout went up as was never before heard in Treloar Hall.

The resolutions were then put, and were, upon motion of C. Overman, Esq., nemine contradicente adopted.

The Chair then appointed, under the resolution empowering it to appoint an Executive Committee of five, the following gentlemen to compose said committee: Gen. R. D. Johnston, Mr. M. L. Wriston, Dr. J. M. Davidson, Mr. S. P. Alexander and Mr. Jonas Rudisil.

Gen. John A. Young was then called upon and addressed the meeting in a few pertinent and well-timed remarks.

After Gen. Young had concluded, Col. Wm. Johnston was called upon and responded.

After Col. Johnston had concluded, Gov. Vance moved that a committee of five be appointed to nominate officers for a permanent organization of the club, to consist of a President, four Vice Presidents, two Secretaries and a Treasurer, which, being adopted, the following gentlemen were appointed said committee by the Chair: Col. H. C. Jones, Mr. J. E. Britton, Dr. M. M. Orr, C. Overman, Esq., and Capt. J. Y. Brice.

Upon motion of Col. Wm. Johnston, it was unanimously:

Resolved, That this meeting hereby expresses gratitude to President Johnson for the firmness, consistency and patriotism which have characterized his course in defending the Constitution, during his administration as chief executive of the United States.

Upon motion of Gen. J. A. Young, the meeting was adjourned until called together again by the President of this meeting.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
"	six months,	4 00
"	three months	2 00
Semi Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
"	six months,	2 00
"	three months,	1 00
Weekly	for one year,	2 00
"	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 28th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon executions, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 186 .

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1861, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of one hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about so to do, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, cestui que trust, whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 23, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose disposing of such cases. The additional expenses of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise money," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
